Esteemed Cardinal Roger Mahoney

I write to you with deep regret and embarrassment as a devote Catholic. Due to the recent allegations against the Catholic Church, I feel the responsibility and obligation as a follower of Christ to come forth with my experience growing up as a victim of sexual abuse in the Catholic Church.

The events and person of whom which I am about to notify you of occurred roughly between the years 1984 and 1985, at St. Joseph Catholic Parish in Hawthorne California. I attended St. Joseph Catholic School from 1st grade until my graduation of the 8th grade where I served as an alter boy, student and parishiner under the guidance of our pastor Rev. Clinton Hagenbach. I trusted him very much as did my parents since he helped them pay for me and my brothers tuition. Let it be known that this financial assistance he provided did in no way justify his conduct and or actions.

What I am about to divulge to you is quite difficult to put in words. For 18 years I have kept this secret from everyone. I truly felt that if I had done something wrong and that God would punish me for talking to others about what happened in Father Hagenbachs rectory. I know now that the lies, hypocrisy and demonic ways of these so called men of the cloth must be brought to light! Not for my sake nor for those of others who have come forth, but for the sake of my future children and other innocent children whose lives will be scared at the hands of such evil men. I begin by formally advising you that I was molested by a Catholic priest by the name of Clinton Hagenbach. As I mentioned earlier in this letter. The abuse began in 1984 in his bedroom at the rectory of St. Joseph Catholic Parish. After serving mass with Father Hagenbach he would invite his special alter boys over to his room for M&Ms and sodas. We all took a liking to Father Hagenbach, what kid wouldn't with all those chocolates and sodas. He in turn had a special place for his alter boys. We knew what awaited us in his room, jars of M&Ms [both plain and peanut], sodas stacked to the closet walls, his gun collection and his dirty video collection. At that young age I thought if a priest lets you watch those kinds of videos than it must be ok. After mass and greeting the congregation, Father Hagenbach would return to his room were I would be watching television and eating chocolates. He would sit next to me and begin to kiss me on my lips. The kisses slowly progressed to tongue kissing, from that point he would take his hand and rub my penis and ask me if it felt good. I did not know what to say, I always thought this was suppose to be between a man and a woman. Father Hagenbach would then show me his penis and have me either touch it or sit on it and rub it. I have blocked these memories of my childhood out for years for I knew that they would bring shame upon myself, my parents and God. There was another alter boy who was my childhood friend by the name of REDACTED he to was molested various times by Father Hagenbach. He would separate us from each other, one in his bedroom while the other waited his turn in his living room. This abuse went on for a year or so until my graduation from St. Joseph Catholic School.

In my heart I have forgiven father Hagenbach for his sins, I pray that he has asked God for forgiveness as well. One thing is to forgive as Jesus has taught us to do in the gospels, but another is to look the other way when one knows there are atrocities being committed. This is the sin of all leaders of the Catholic Church who know of and protect child molesting priests. How dare you wash your hands and look the other way as Pontious Pilate did during our saviors crucifixion. If you Cardinal Mahoney, Pope John Paul II, and all the cardinals, bishops, monsignors and priests know of any of your clergy to be molesting or have molested innocent children let it be known public and let them be defrocked! We as Catholics are not concerned about loosing potential clergy men and the dwindling ranks of priests due to the outcome of this potential list. Those would be staffing problems and are semantics. Is it not the Catholic Churchs mission here on earth to lead Gods people and proclaim his eternal word? I fear that if this "cancer" is not removed, the church will not only loose followers, but more importantly loose the blessings and favor that God has bestowed on it. I ask you Cardinal Mahoney to stop for a second and look to your right, implore the Holy face of our sweet Lord Jesus Christ and ask him what he would do? You are a leader! You must by definition lead by example! Do you think our Lord Jesus Christ turned the other way when he saw the hypocrites in the temple desecrating the house of God? Are each of us not the house of God? Scripture states that our bodies are temples of God. For even Christ himself took a whip and forced the hypocrites out of Gods Holy Temple. I ask you this, which is the greater sin? A priest who molests, or the Church that protects the molester? I am well aware that as Christians we must forgive, but to deny and hide a sin is wrong.

The practice of protecting perverts or better put "criminals" has come to an end! There are thousands of young men coming to grip with the lies and secrets that have haunted them for over half of there lives. These are new times we are living in, no longer will Catholic parishioners take a docile stance on this matter. Nor will we be held accountable for the guilt, remorse and sins of there Church! It took me 18 years to come forth with this dark and shameful secret. I implore you for the sake of God, his Holy Church on earth and the lives of innocent children all over the world do something NOW!

I demand that a list of all child molesting clergy men be made public and turned in to local law enforcement agencies. I also demand that a formal investigation be launched into the behavior and conduct of Father Clinton Hagenbach and his whereabouts so that he and others like him may be defrocked so they may be turned over to the proper authorities. For the life of me I cannot begin to fathom the thought of Church leaders knowing of clergy that have in the past or are currently molesting children giving the Holy Sacraments such as Penance and Holy Communion. As I have stated earlier, I forgive Father Hagenbach for what he has done to me and countless others, but what makes you believe that years of patterned behavior can be eradicated with an act of contrition?

Cardinal Mahoney, I pray for you and all the leaders of the Catholic Church that combined with God's infinite wisdom, the Holy Spirit's everlasting light and Christ's loving power may lead you to do what is right! To renounce Satan and his current grip on our beloved Church, and to be truthful and forthcoming with these perpetrators in our midst. I do expect a response to this letter as well as a list of all known clergy men who have indulged in the sexual perversion of children to local law enforcement.

Yours in Christ

Dear Mr.

Cardinal Roger Mahony asked me to respond to your recent letter. First, let me express my deep sorrow at the abuse you experienced. No child should ever be mistreated in the way you were, especially not by a priest.

As a Church, we wish to respond in a way that can contribute to your healing. Therefore, I have asked REDACTED REDACTED the Coordinator of our assistance ministry, to contact you. She will do so in the near future. If you prefer, you may phone her at REDACTED

Father Clinton Hagenbach died on December 7, 1987. As of the time of his death, we had never received a complaint that he had abused anyone, child or adult. At the end of last year, we received our first indication that he had acted abusively. I am grateful that you have also come forward so that we can know the truth and learn from it.

Please know that Cardinal Mahony has already reported the names and appropriate information about any priest accused of child abuse to the police and other authorities. He has not reported those names to the media for many reasons, including the fact that the police want to be free to conduct their investigations appropriately and without the glare of publicity. Of course, he has not provided the names of deceased priests who have engaged in abusive activities, since a dead man cannot be punished by criminal penalties.

Again, I thank you for writing. May the Holy Spirit give you the gift of growth in healing.

Sincerely yours,

Monsignor Craig A. Cox, J.C.D.
Vicar for Clergy

"Yes, REDACTED it's 3:30 PM I wondered if you could pass a message on to REDACTED – he won't call me back. I just sent him some bills for reimbursement last week – UPS'd them to him, so he signed for them – I checked, he signed for them. I'd just like to get it taken care of and he won't call me back. I'd appreciate it if you'd drop him a line and just tell him to pay the damn thing so we can keep moving forward on this. I'd really appreciate it for some help here, since I'm getting zero from Craig. Thank you. You can call me on my cell REDACTED . Thank you. Bye."

Dear Cardinal Mahoney,

We met with you on March 19 in your office regarding a situation about Father Hagenbach. I felt you were understanding with the situation and I left thinking you were going to do the right thing. Like I told you in our meeting, when I first came forward regarding the abuse, to REDACTED in Nov. I stated to him that "I just want to deal with this the way God would want me to deal with it". When we (my father in law, wife and myself) met with you we stated that we want to settle this situation quickly and fairly. We stated that we wanted to conclude this situation without legal counsel. So far your people have done very little to conclude this situation rapidly if anything they have slowed my progress in recovery. This brings back vivid memories of how Hagenbach manipulated me as a child growing up. I am not sure if you are aware of the lack of progress that has occurred since our meeting but would appreciate if you would get involved. There is no reason why REDACTED Cox won't return my phone calls, multiple phone calls at that. This would not be acceptable in any other business matter, it is purely lack of professionalism and bad people skills. I really don't know what to think of this two dioceses employees, do you feel what they are doing is what God would want them to do in this situation? Please contact me ASAP so I can continue in the my recovery from this horrible situation.

RE: Interview with REDACTED (re: case of Rev. Clinton Hagenbach) on June 11, 2002 by REDACTED REDACTED

The following are my notes for the interview that you and I conducted with REDACTED today at 1:30p.m. at the ACC.

1. REDACTED arrived about 15 minutes late, he thought the meeting was to be held at the Cathedral Officers.
2. He says that he does not recall clearly if he was 12 or 13 or if he was 17 or 18 when the abuse by Fr. Clinton Hagenbach began, then after lots of thought, he thinks it was about 14. Was it about 200 times that he abused me? I don't recall clearly. He was taken to Las Vegas, given some amphetamines, but it is not very clear, and very painful to be talking about all this.
3. I grew up as a Catholic, I was educated as a Catholic, I went to REDACTED High School down the street.
4. I come here not to criticize the Church. I don't want to go to SNAP meeting, I tried that and it was too angry. It doesn't fit my needs. I want some spiritual assistance.
5. Perhaps if I could find some friendly group that would discuss and talk about these things. Maybe families that need to discuss this. I was under the impression that Cardinal Mahony was setting up a spiritual assistance program. I would like to get help there.
6. Not necessarily therapists or psychologists. Just people that can discuss this and share some thoughts and experiences.
7. Another possibility would be a priest from the REDACTED area, where I could talk with. My wife is pretty mad at me still thinking about the Church. She recently became a Catholic. I sort of feel guilty, that I brought her in to all of this. My father was a REDACTED for 40 years at REDACTED. He is kind of quiet about all of this, he is concerned about what the REDACTED would think about him, that he was there when this all happened. Fr. Hagenbach was living with us for two months at our house when the abuse began. He betrayed us. At least I know that he is in hell.
8. My brother is angry, very angry. He is still with the SNAP people. He spends lots of free time on the internet searching and looking for things about priests. I have tried to tell him to free himself up and go out to a movie or something with the family. I don't want Hagenbach to tie me down, to control me, by making me spend time with protesters and angry people and computers. I don't want him to control my life. I want to go to a group where I can heal, and talk and discuss this with others, so that others won't be hurt as I was, perhaps hundreds of others who were hurt. There was another third guy who hung around with us who was also abused, but he hasn't come forth yet. It is very painful. (He cried tears at this point)
9. I would like to see the files on Fr. Clinton. My brother also requested them, but was turned down. I also would like to see the files on Fr. Clinton.
10. I would like to meet with Cardinal Mahony, my parents, perhaps my wife. My brother got to see him. I would too. (We indicated that his schedule was very full, but that we would forward his request. We inquired when he would like to see him.) He said that because he leaves on vacation by mid July, he would like to see him before the July 4th weekend.

REDACTED and I indicated that we would work on trying to find a group to meet with, or a priest, as he requested and that we would get to him as soon as possible. Also, concerning the files on Fr. Clinton Hagenbach, we indicated that that was out of our hands, the lawyers decide those things, and that a request for a meeting with the Cardinal would be forwarded to his office.

REDACTED
Dear

I remember our meeting at St. Dorothy's, Glendora, and have continued to think about you and pray for you and your family since that time. I trust you are well and that the Holy Spirit of healing and peace has been leading you forward.

I am writing at the request of Cardinal Mahony and REDACTED REDACTED. You have requested the opportunity to meet with Cardinal Mahony, and he has long had a policy of openness to and enthusiasm for such meetings. He still very much wants to meet with you as well as with others who have been abused by a priest. Recent developments, however, now preclude his ability to schedule such meetings at this time.

As I am sure you are aware, the California Legislature and Governor decided to rescind the previously existing statute of limitation in circumstances of sexual misconduct with minors. This, coupled with the filing on July 16 of a class action lawsuit before the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, has created new circumstances and legal obstacles to any meeting between Cardinal Mahony and victims at this time. Meetings of this nature would almost certainly have the unintended consequence of tainting the legal force of any agreement for damages reached subsequently. Thus, only after the issues related to the monetary damages that you are seeking are definitively settled can the Cardinal meet with you without creating serious legal complications for you and for the Church.

Let me assure you that the Cardinal still wishes to meet with you and your wife at some point in the future, and I personally hope that this can occur sooner rather than later.

I am enclosing a brief letter from one of the attorneys of the Archdiocese that contains some information on how you might pursue entering a settlement or joining the class action suit. I trust that this information may be helpful for you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Monsignor Craig A. Cox, J.C.D.
Vicar for Clergy

Cardinal Roger Mahony

Dear Cardinal Mahony:

I am writing in response to Monsignor Cox's letter (enclosed) to my husband, REDACTED dated August 2, 2002, and to plead with you to meet with REDACTED as you did his brother. REDACTED is the brother of REDACTED, who met with you personally on April 19, 2002.

As I am sure you are aware, like REDACTED was molested, abused and tortured by Father Clinton Hagenbach from 1973 through 1980. The abuse he endured was sexual in nature as well as physical and mental. Over the seven-year period, the abuse included the introduction and use of drugs and alcohol as well as being threatened at gunpoint. The instances of abuse by Father Hagenbach against REDACTED occurred at least one hundred times during this seven-year period.

A casual observer of REDACTED might think that REDACTED has had a good life over the last thirty years since the abuse first began. REDACTED is a proud alumnus of REDACTED High School and graduate of REDACTED. We have been married for over ten years. On REDACTED 2001, our first child, REDACTED was born.

Along with this success, however, REDACTED life has been difficult. The burden of living with the pain of the abuse brought on by Father Hagenbach has come at a cost, resulting in the manifestation of physical problems and mental anguish. REDACTED suffers from depression and severe anxiety. For many years, REDACTED has suffered from a weight problem, weighing as much as 292 pounds, despite his active participation in sports. Presently, REDACTED is eighty-five pounds overweight, and this is negatively affecting his health. Additionally, when REDACTED was younger, he relied on drugs to help him escape from his anxiety, ultimately repressing the horrific acts perpetrated upon him by Father Hagenbach. While REDACTED was able to overcome REDACTED REDACTED pain of his past.

REDACTED suffers from constant anxiety. On a day-to-day basis, he is haunted by panic attacks. He has difficulty sleeping, which includes nightmares, night-time panic attacks, as well as sleep apnea. As to be expected with weight problems and anxiety, REDACTED also has high blood pressure.

REDACTED

T-681 P.03/03 F-689

As referenced in REDACTED letter, REDACTED met with the Monsignor and Dr. REDACTED in late 2001. At that time, Monsignor Cox advised both REDACTED that you were available to meet with abuse victims and advised both of them to set up an appointment with you. Thereafter, REDACTED was able to meet with you on April 19, 2002. However, despite his persistent efforts, REDACTED was not afforded the same opportunity. Instead, Monsignor Cox now advises in his letter that, because of pending litigation, your policy on meeting victims has changed. In addition, Monsignor Cox's letter suggests that REDACTED may want to pursue litigation against the church by joining a recently filed class action lawsuit.

Under REDACTED special circumstances, we do not find these offerings acceptable. While it is clear that the church is attempting to protect itself, we believe that you and the church should be treating REDACTED with the same respect that was afforded to REDACTED on April 19, 2002. I do not understand Monsignor Cox's representation that "recent events in California have created a new situation that precludes the Cardinal from meeting with you at this time." These "recent events" have no bearing on the fact that REDACTED together, met with Monsignor Cox and Dr. REDACTED to discuss the abuse they suffered by Father Hagenbach at the end of last year. It is deplorable and unthinkable that you would meet with REDACTED brother, REDACTED and that the church would knowingly enter into a settlement agreement with REDACTED, without giving the same time and consideration to REDACTED. This treatment seems inconsistent with the basic tenets of Christianity and the fundamental teachings of the church.

I fear that it will not be possible for REDACTED to move forward with his life happily and productively with the notion that he has, once again, been discounted and ultimately harmed by the church and by God. Just this past weekend, after he once again, called REDACTED on Friday to set up an appointment only to be told that "a letter was on its way," and after receiving Monsignor Cox's letter on Saturday, REDACTED had another panic attack, which required him to seek emergency medical attention. He was unable to go to work on Monday, August 5. As a mother and a wife, I am pleading to your sense of decency, that you give him and our family the chance to move beyond the unbearable effects of these horrible events.

Although it is difficult to fully comprehend the anguish REDACTED has endured for the past thirty years, since REDACTED recovered their memory last fall, I now finally understand the manifestation of the pain and suffering that I have witnessed over the last ten years of our marriage.

In closing, I again plead with you to please meet with us, Cardinal Mahony. My husband's physical and mental health and our family's faith, well-being and livelihood are at stake.

Sincerely,
REDACTED

report states that Fr. X was a family friend and helped the victim when he got into trouble at a grammar school in the ADLA, where he was an altar boy. Victim (now 48 years old) reports that Fr. X took him and three other boys on a trip to the desert for 3-7 days, where they rode motorcycles and camped. He alleges that the priest gave them marijuana, alcohol and candies that seem to have produced a drugged state. He recalls sexual abuse including digital penetration of his anus. Victim and his father report that an investigator came to their home in 2010 asking questions about Fr. X and sexual abuse. Fr. X died in 1987. Counseling was offered.
